WHO WILL PROVIDE KNOWLEDGE?

Almost half of the respondents think that online content will be the most important source of knowledge.

1st
Online content

2nd
Brick and mortar school

3rd Social and personnal environment

4th
Workplace

5th

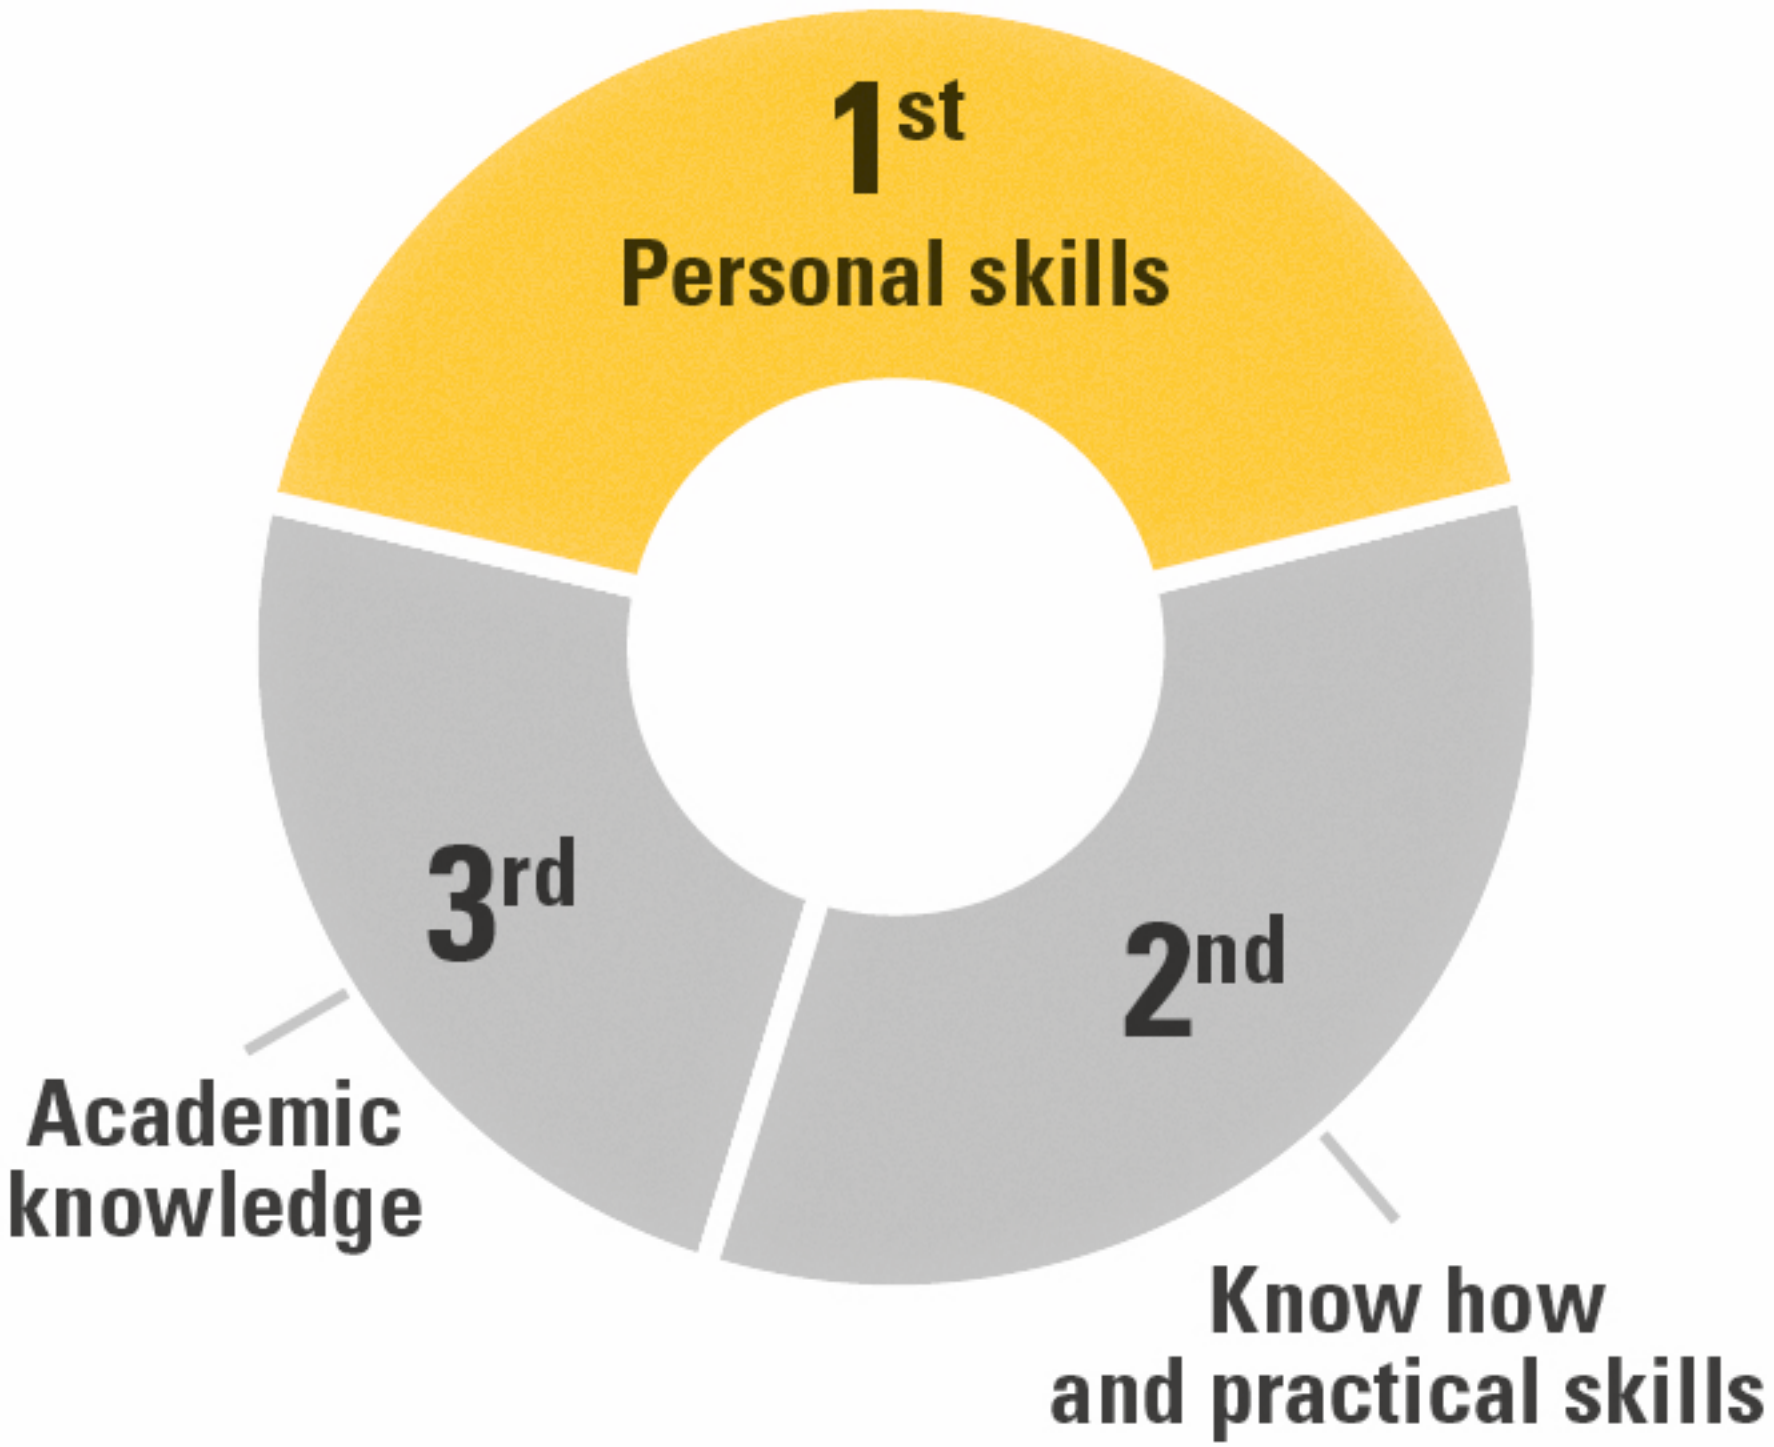
Cultural institutions

Source: WISE Survey "School in 2030"

wise
wise-qatar.org

WHAT TYPE OF SKILLS?

Personal skills will be highly-valued in 2030.

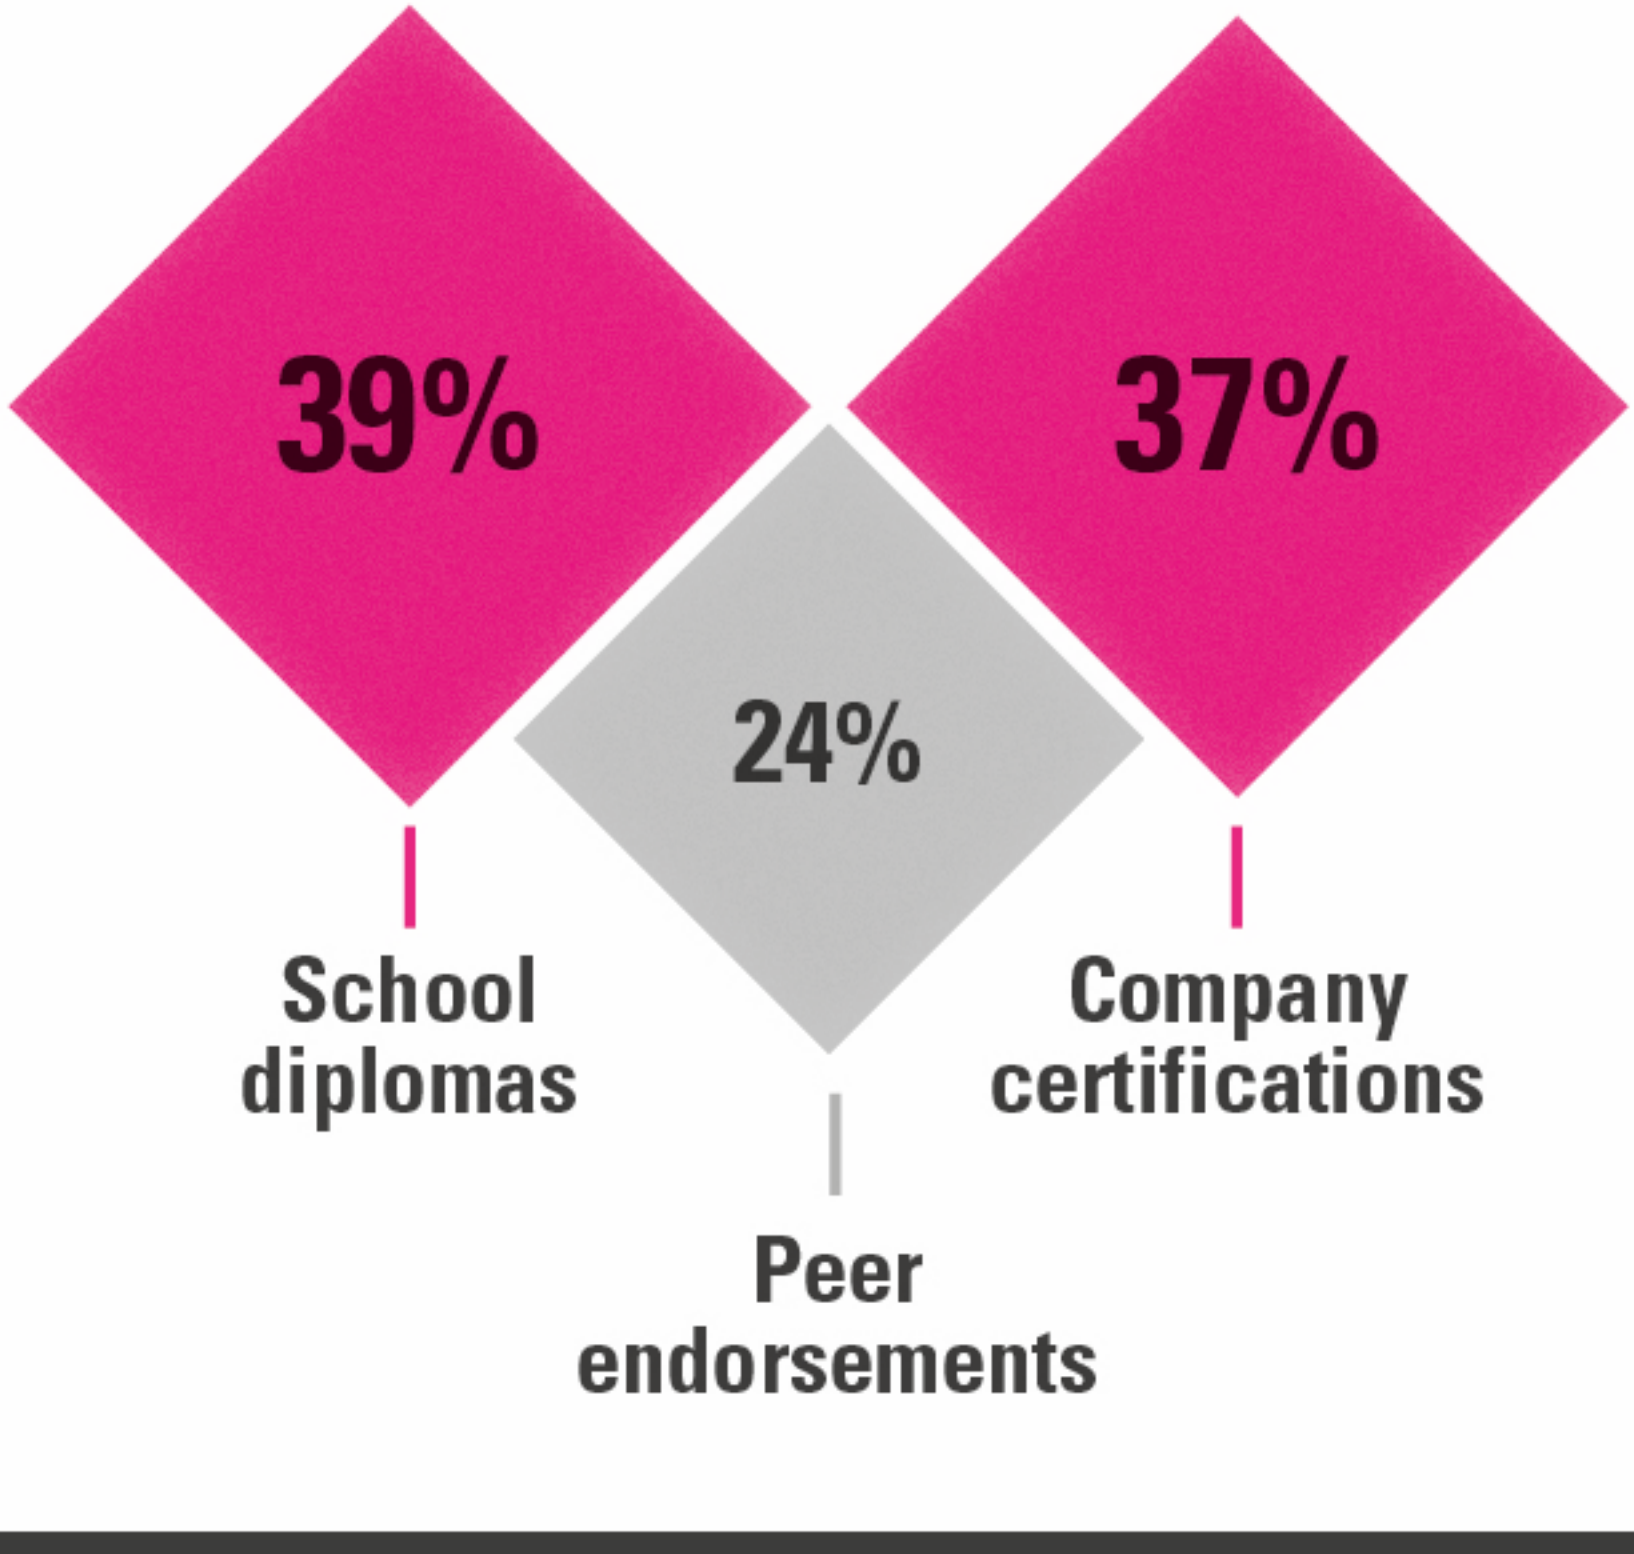


Source: WISE Survey "School in 2030"

wise
wise-qatar.org

WHAT TYPE OF ASSESSMENT?

School diplomas will be challenged by company certifications.

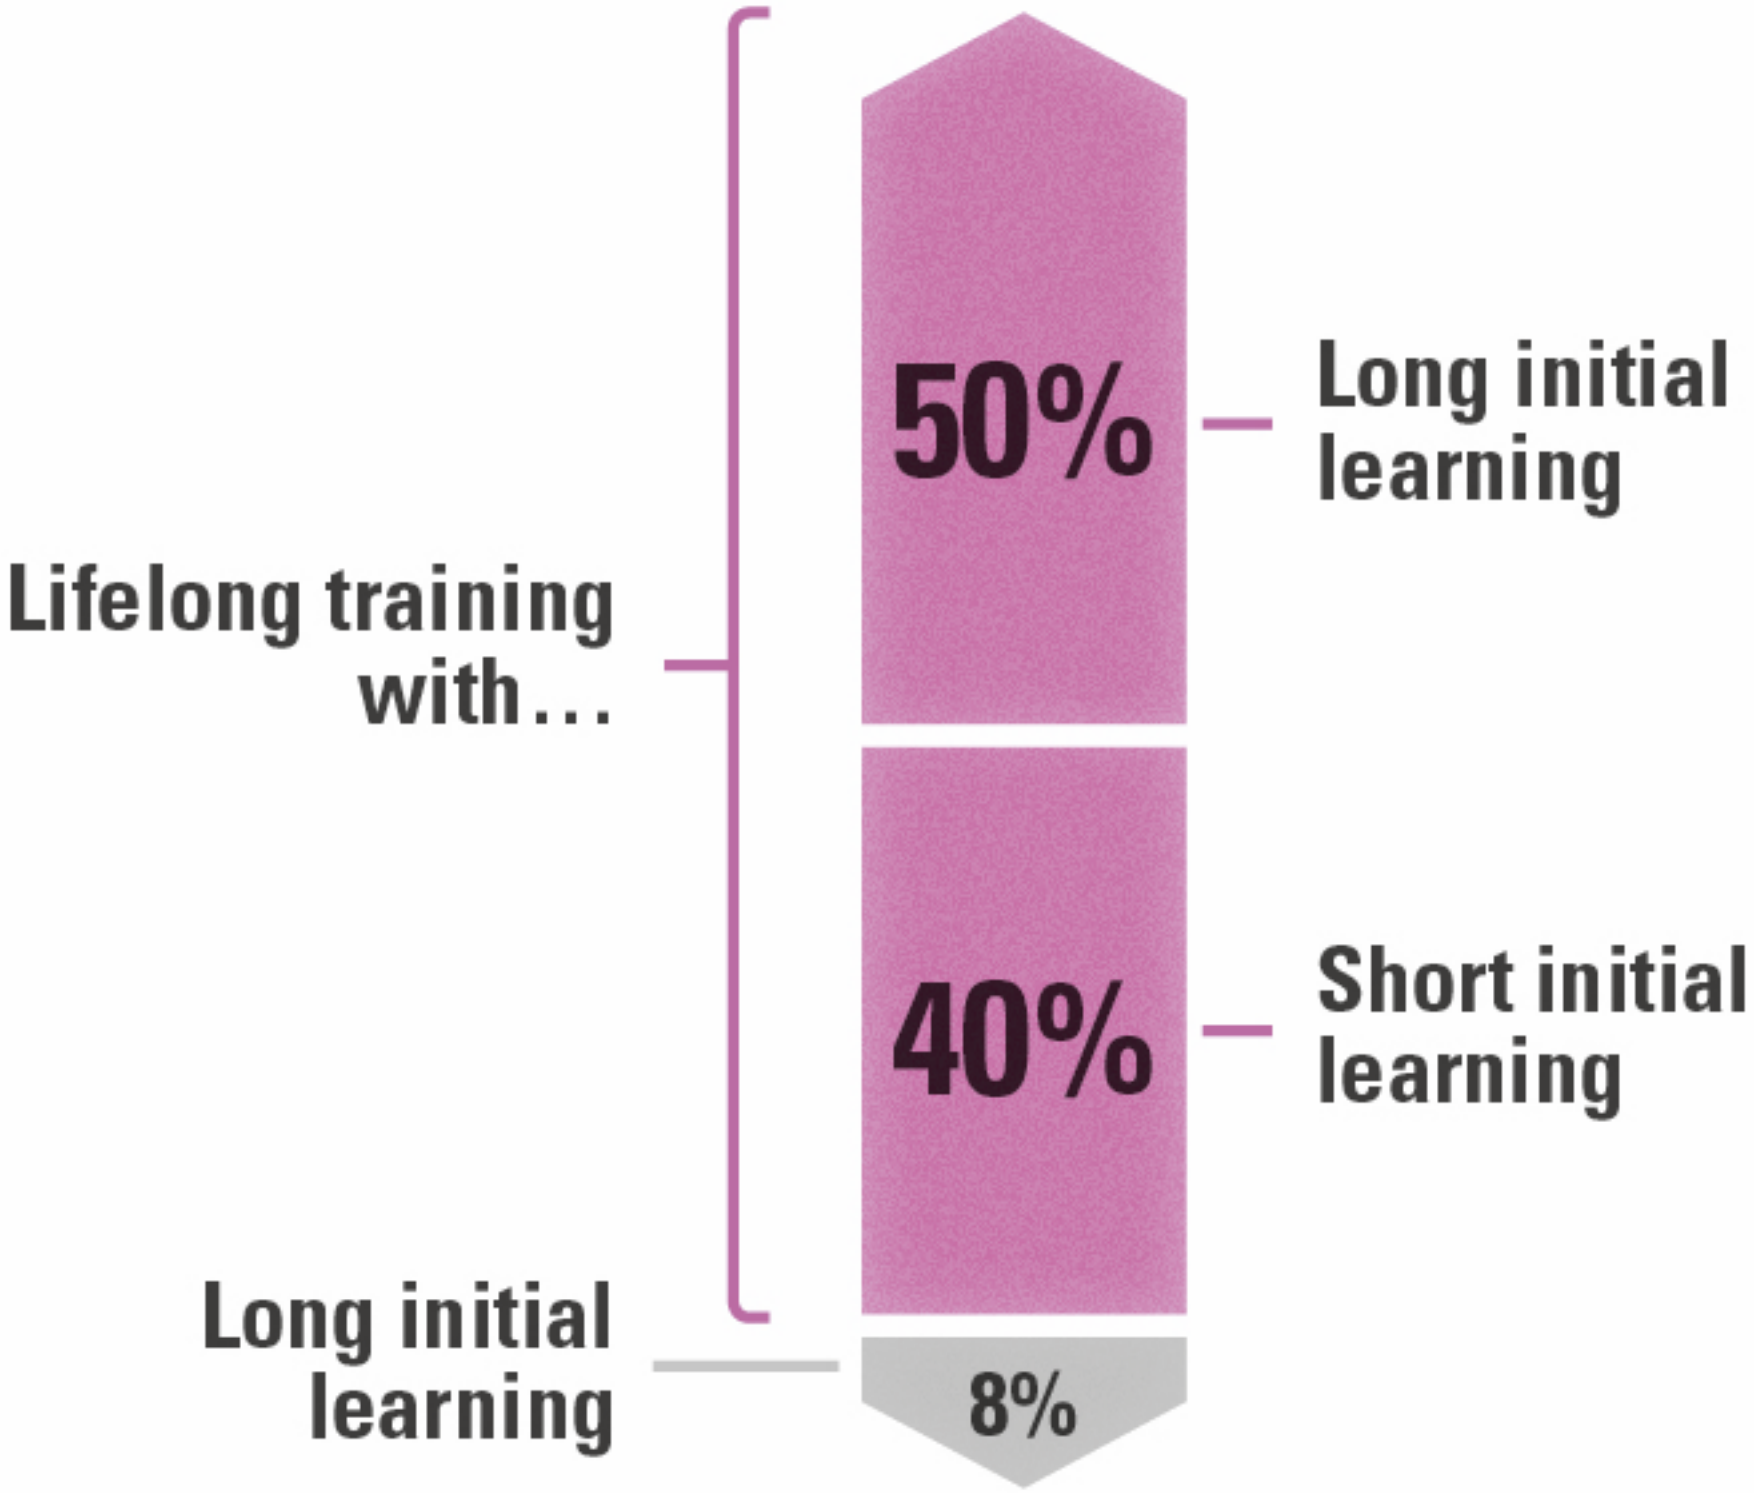


Source: WISE Survey "School in 2030"

wise
wise-qatar.org

LEARNING FOR ALL AGES?

Learning will become a lifelong endeavor.

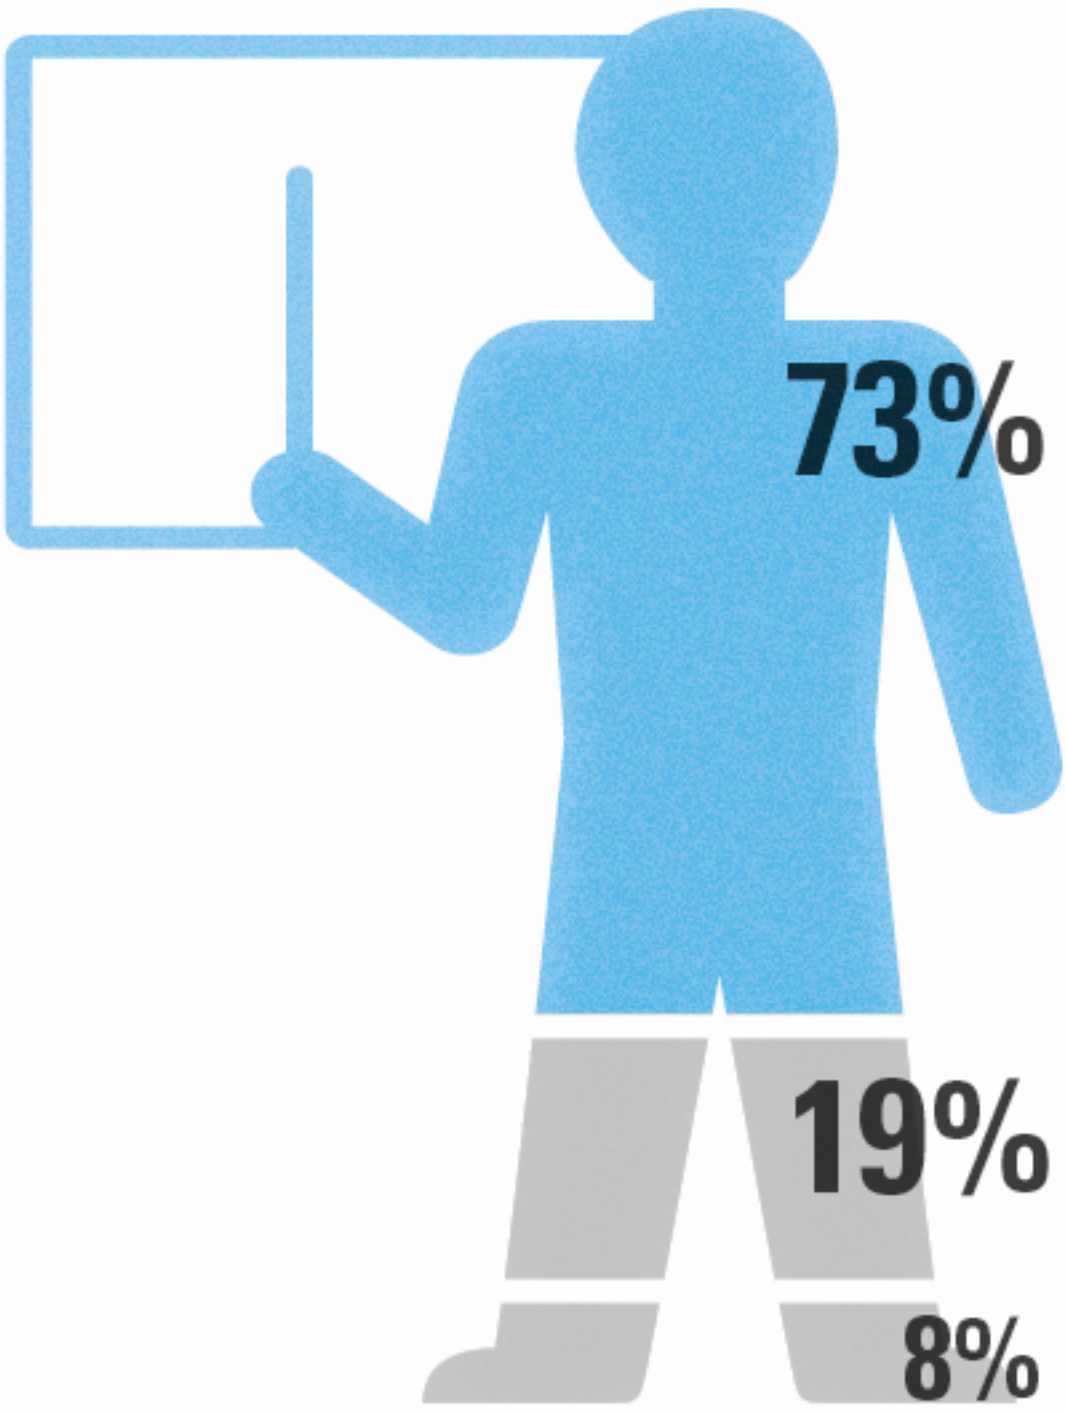


Source: WISE Survey "School in 2030"

wise
wise-qatar.org

THE ROLE OF TEACHERS?

The role of teachers will shift toward guiding students along their autonomous learning paths.



73% Guide and mentor students

19% Deliver knowledge

8% Validate student's online work

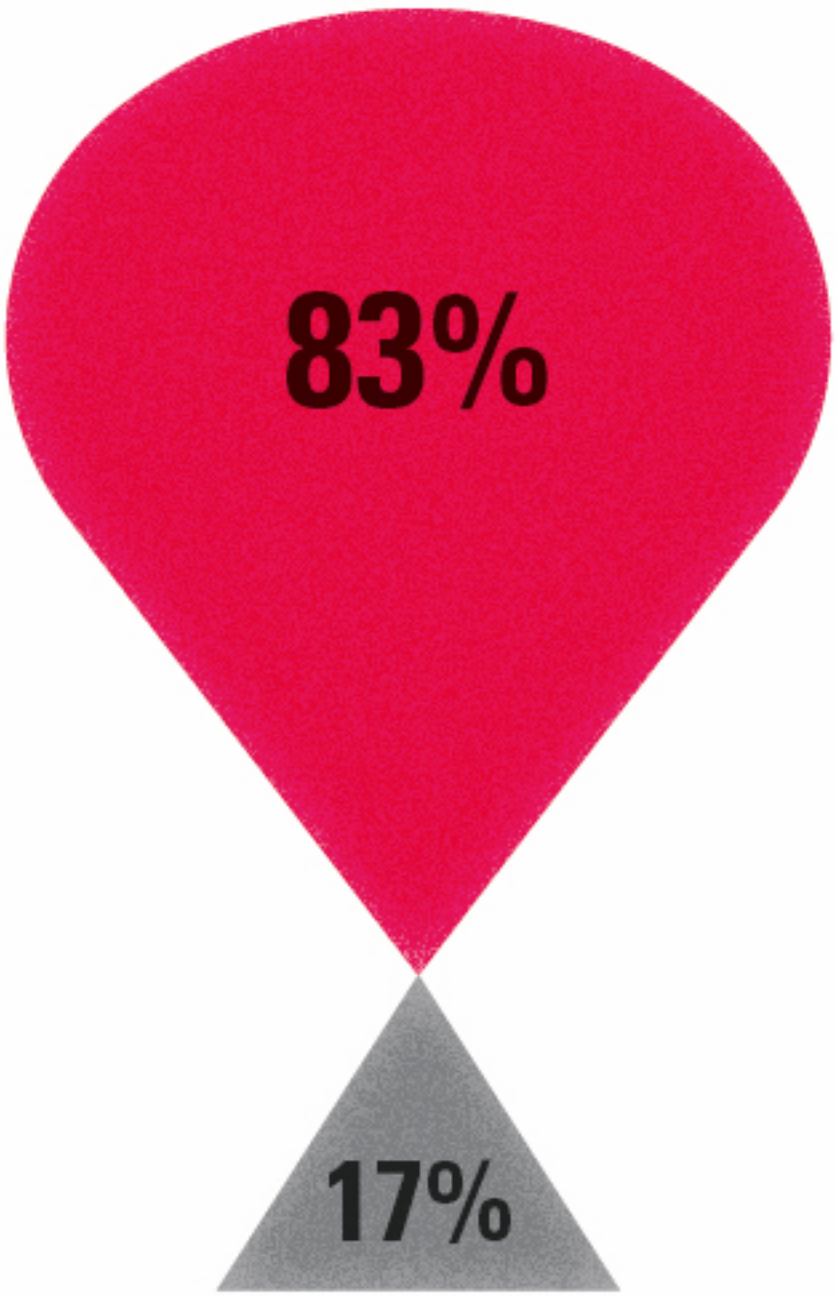
Source: WISE Survey "School in 2030"

wise

wise-qatar.org

WHAT TYPE OF CURRICULA?

The majority of experts think content will become more individualized to suit each student's needs.



More tailored and personalized content

Consistent and standardized content

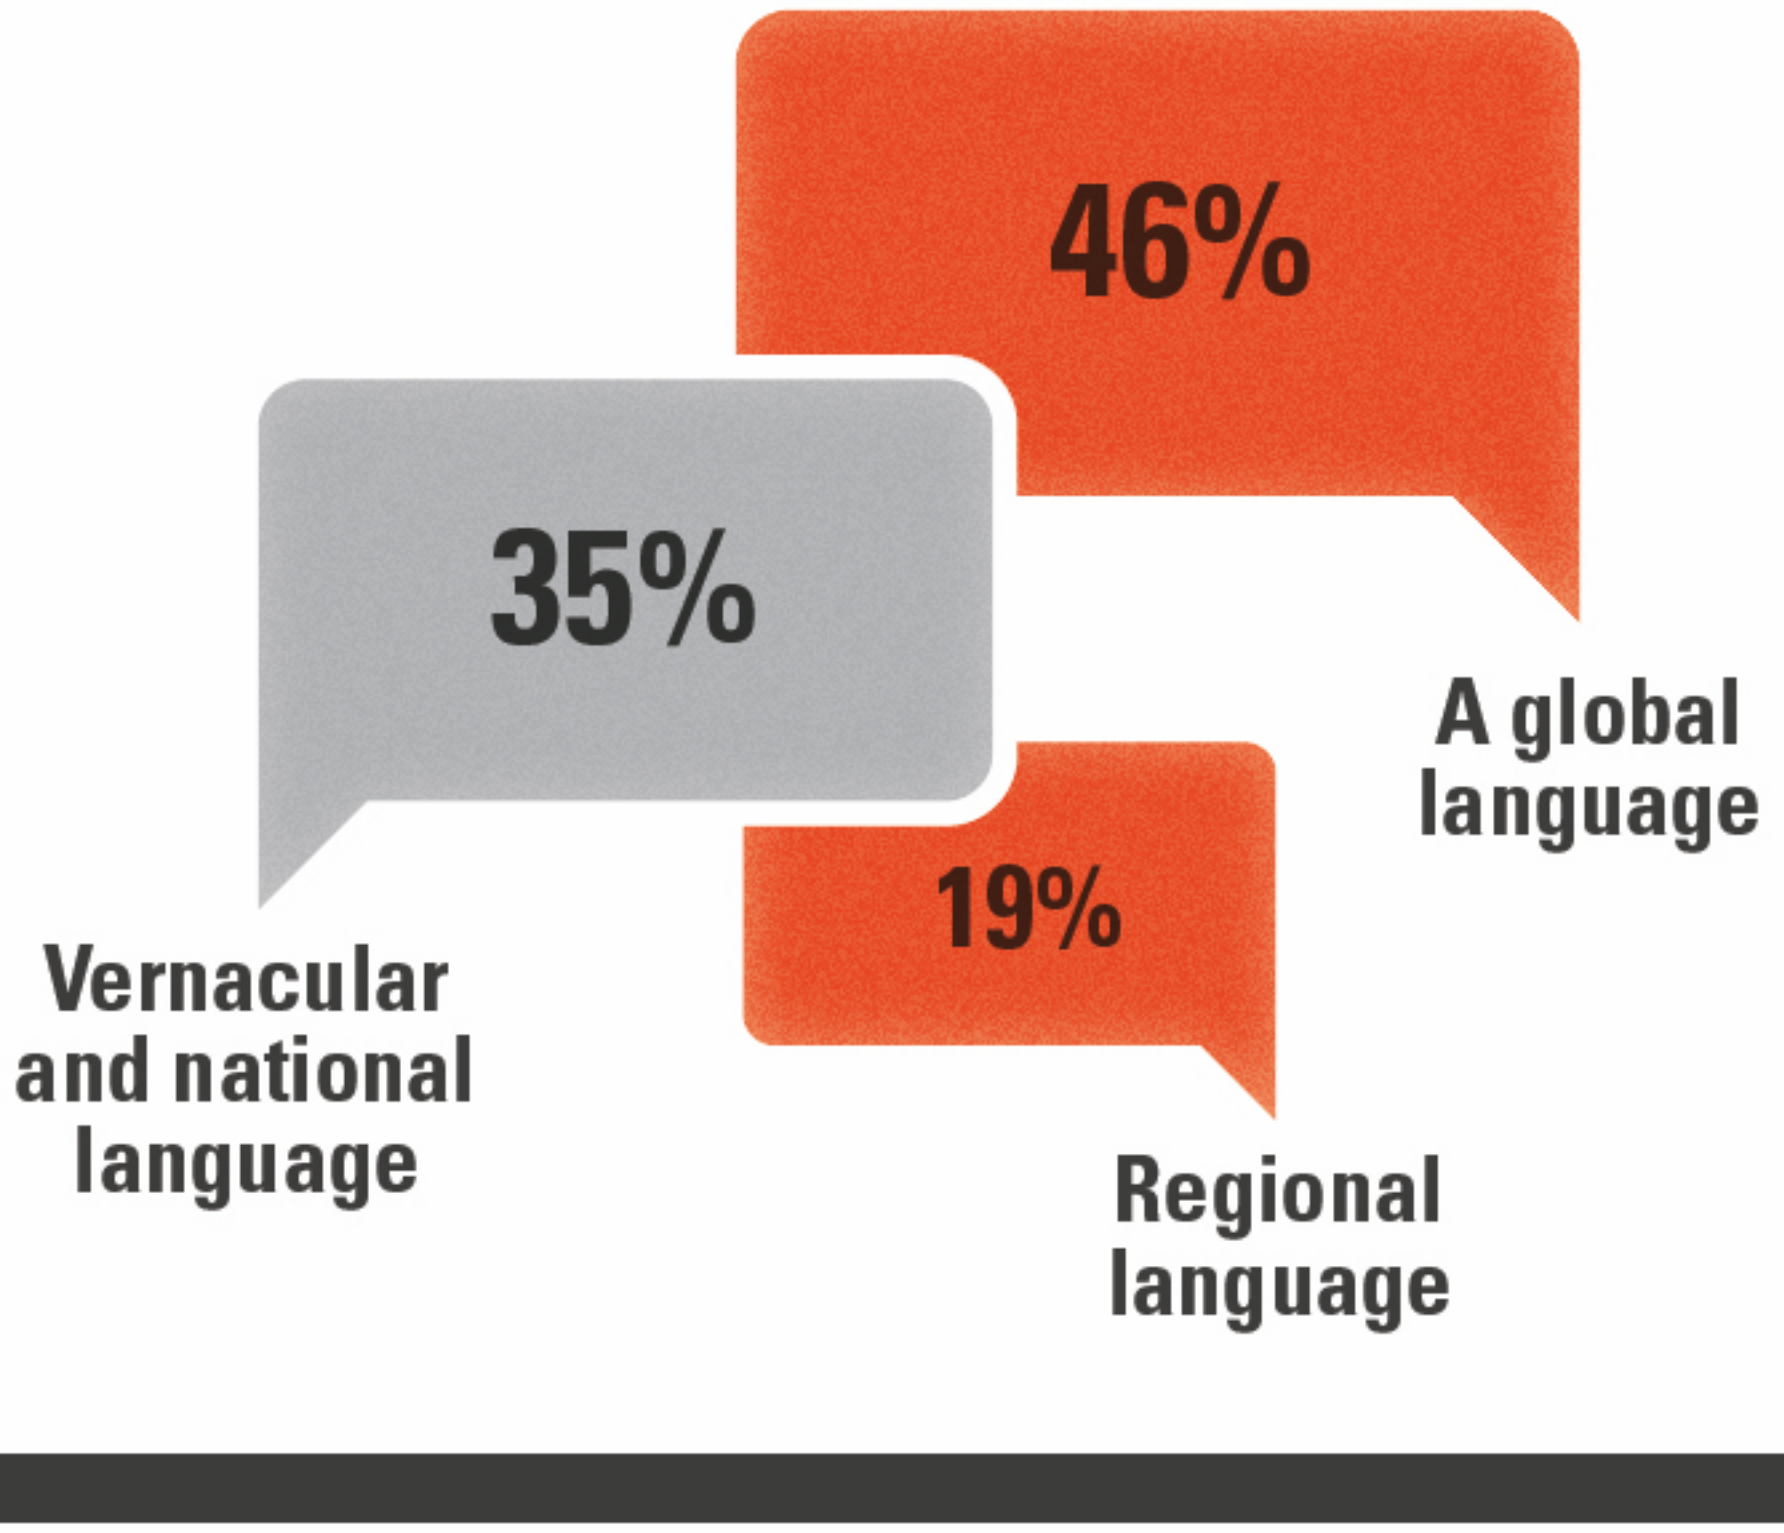
Source: WISE Survey "School in 2030"

wise

wise-qatar.org

WHAT LANGUAGE FOR EDUCATION?

65% of experts think that the language used in education will no longer be vernacular or national.

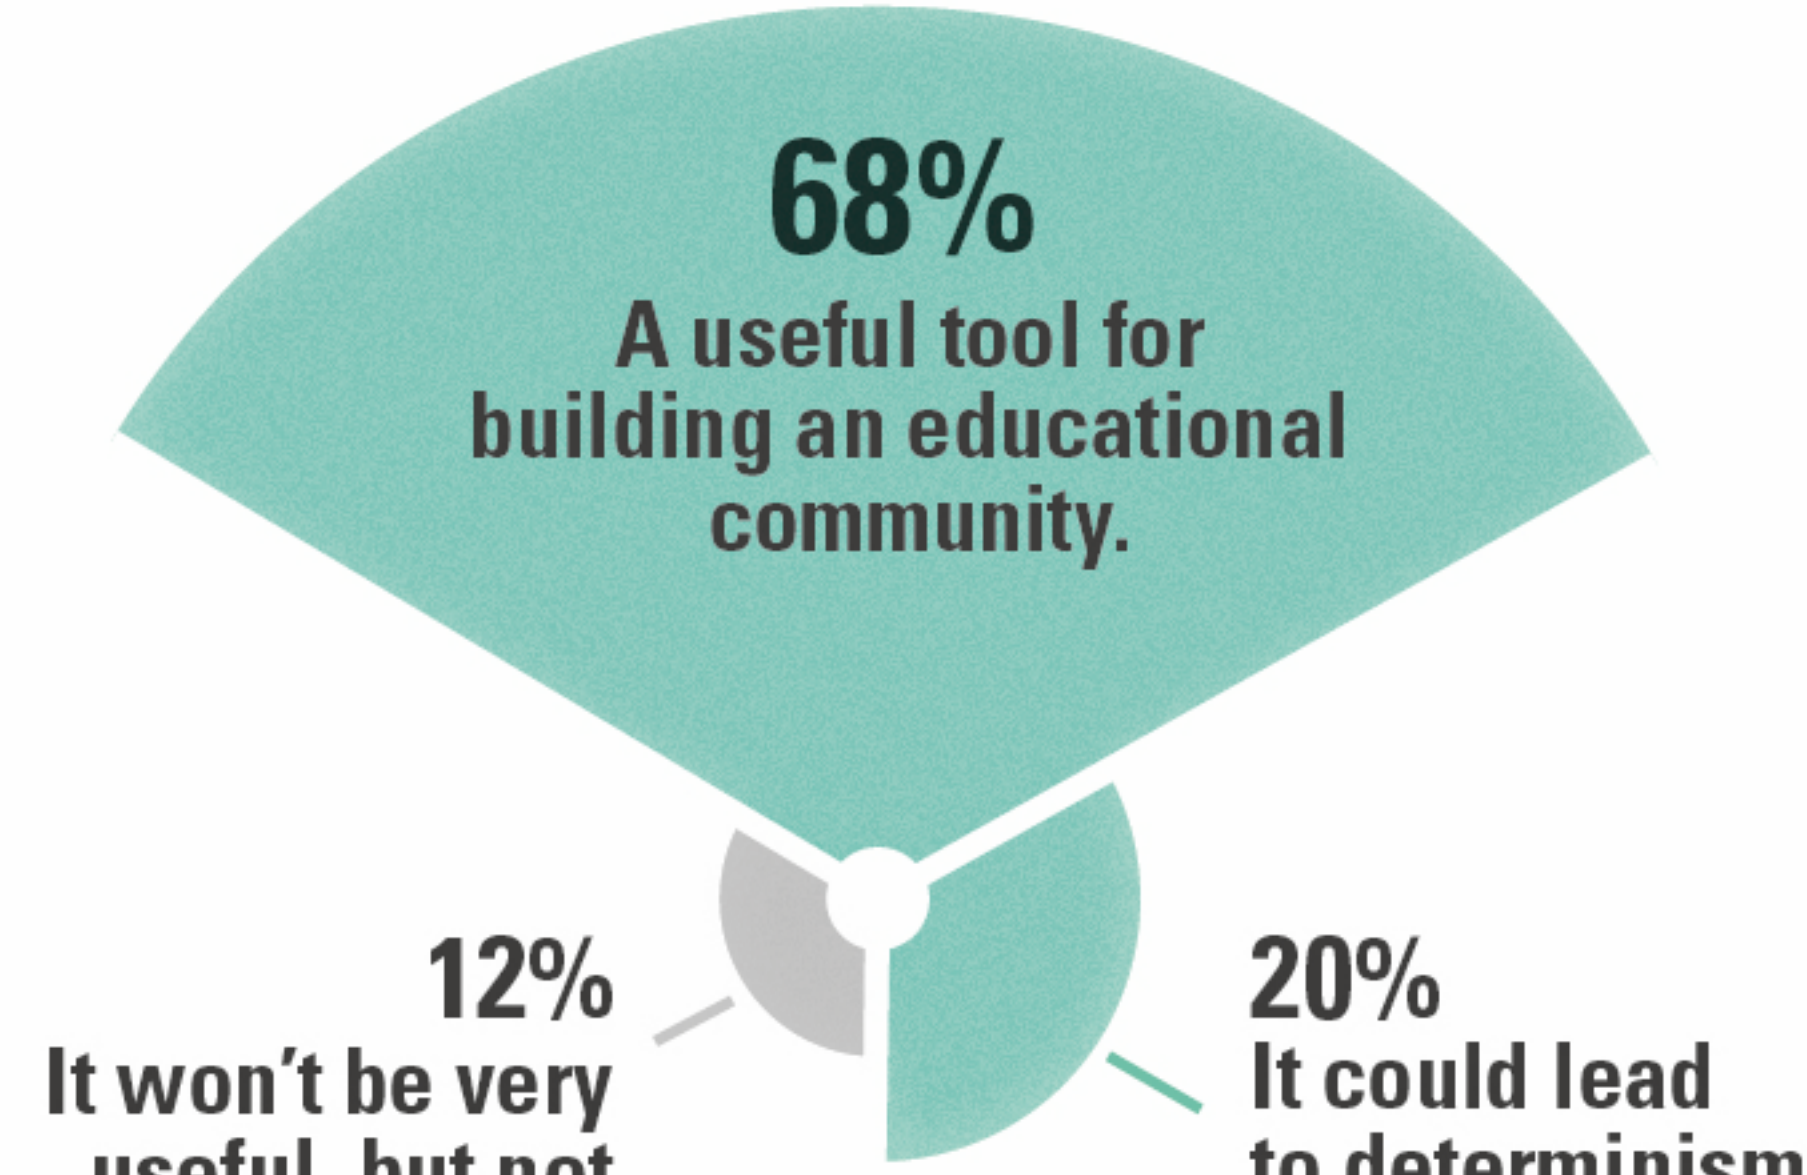


Source: WISE Survey "School in 2030"

wise
wise-qatar.org

WHAT ROLE FOR BIG DATA?

88% of experts agree that Big Data will play a role in education.

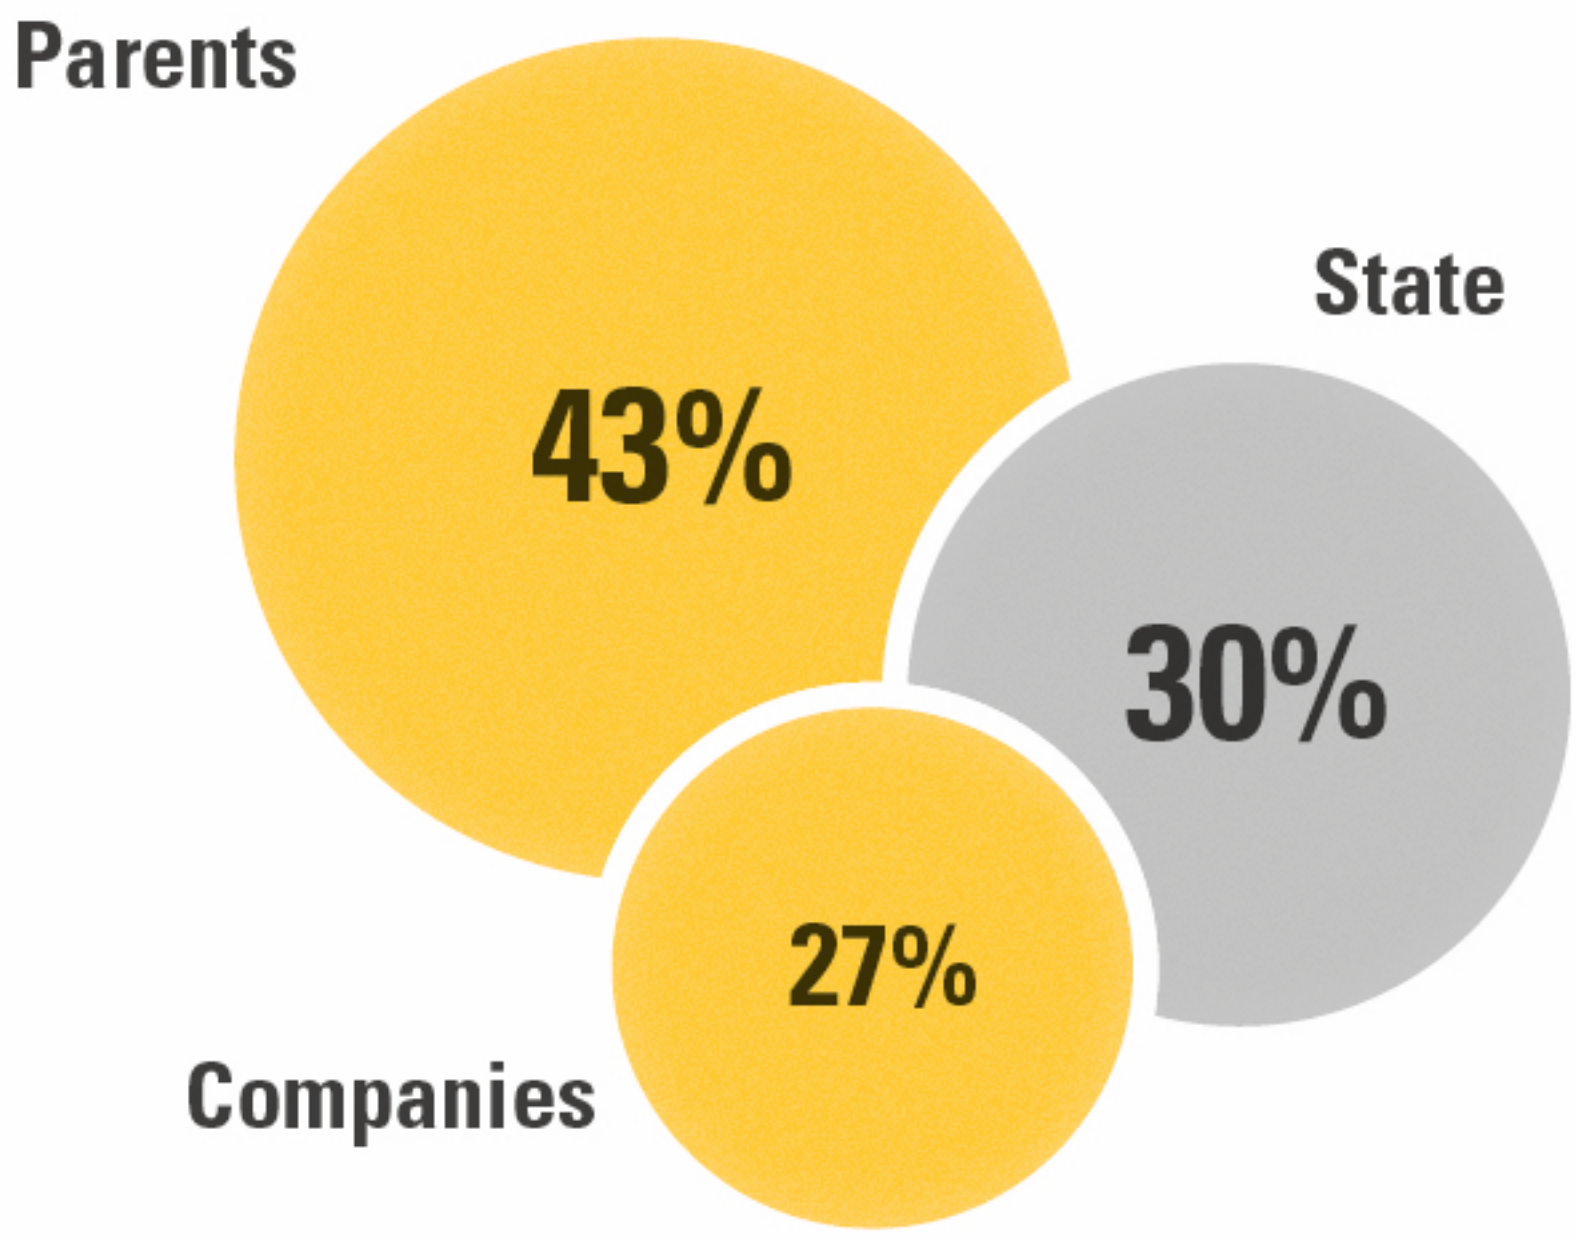


Source: WISE Survey "School in 2030"

wise
wise-qatar.org

WHO WILL PAY?

70% of respondents think that the State will not be the main source of financing for education.



Source: WISE Survey “School in 2030”

wise
wise-qatar.org